Director, IDBI, Managing Directors SBI, Deputy Manging Director, ICICI Bank) and Advisor to GOI (Managing Director, SBI Capital Markets Ltd) held discussions with various stakeholders including GE/Bechtel. It was agreed that the two parties i.e. GE and Bechtel should reach a settlement on mutually acceptable commercial principles without going through legal arbitration. GE agreed that they would prefer a commercial settlement rather than going through the arbitration route.

The settlement which GE and Bechtel, which was concluded in July 2005, was comprehensive in nature and encompassed all their outstanding claims against all the Indian stakeholders including GOI, GIOM, MSEB and MPDCL. Under the settlement transaction, GE, Bechtel have:

- dropped all their claims against GOI, GOM, MSEB, MPDCL and the
- transferred their right title and interests on DPC shares to an Special Purpose Vehicle;
- settled their contractors' claims against DPC and
- committed to co-operate for the restart and completion of the project
